THINGS TO DO

Junction Shopping Center

Your one stop location for all your shopping needs.

- Clothing, department stores and salons
- Groceries and pharmacy
- Restaurants, coffee, yogurt and smoothies
- Candy, books and gifts
- Shipping/copies, banks and more

Jamestown

- Ride the rails with the "movie star locomotive," the Sierra No. 3™, to a bygone era and take a tour of one of the few remaining working railroad roundhouses in America at Railtown 1897 State Historic Park.
- Taste the varieties of Tuolumne County in 2 boutique tasting rooms.
- Dine and stay the night in a historic inn.
- Stroll along the Walk of Fame, a walkway stretching between Rocca Park, downtown and Railtown 1897 State Historic Park, that's dotted with artistic medallions featuring many of the movies and TV shows filmed in the local area.

Sonora

- Start your day at the Certified Sonora Farmers' Market on Stewart Street.
- Visit the eclectic shops and art galleries in Historic Downtown Sonora.
- Experience live music, shopping and delights of 2nd Saturday Art Night every second Saturday night of the month, year-round.
- Explore Sonora's three fascinating museums, the Tuolumne County Museum and History Center, the Sonora Fire Museum and the Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum.
- Dine at Sonora's many unique eateries.
- Take a hike on the Dragoon Gulch Trail.

Columbia

- Take a stagecoach ride through the limestone remnants of the mining industry on the outskirts of town.
- Pan for gold.
- Find that unique gift in the eclectic shops of Columbia State Historic Park operated by Gold Rush era-costumed shopkeepers; don't forget to pick up a Columbia Soda Works sarsaparilla to drink along the way.
- Stay the night in a historic inn in the heart of this working Gold Rush town.
- Outfit yourself in period attire and pose for an old-fashioned photograph.
- Make your own candle the old-fashioned way—your one-of-a-kind souvenir.
- Take in a live performance at the historic Fallon House Theatre.
